

Jarvis Street Baptist Church Catechism #29 Part 2

Question: How does Christ perform the office of a priest?

Answer: Christ performs the office of a priest by once offering Himself as a sacrifice to satisfy divine justice and to reconcile us to God; and by making continual intercession for us.

What is a priest?

- a) Someone who offers sacrifices.
- b) Someone who offers you a job.
- c) Someone who offers you money.

What is a sacrifice?

- a) An animal killed on an altar as a substitute for the person giving it.
- b) A person dying in someone else's place.
- c) Both a) and b).

What does "to satisfy divine justice" mean?

- a) To meet the expectations of the Supreme Court of Canada.
- b) To meet the expectations of the the principal of a school.
- c) To meet the expectations of the law of God.

What does "reconcile" mean?

- a) To make two people or two groups enemies.
- b) To make two people or two groups friends.
- c) To make two people or two groups work.

Memorize: For this reason he had to be made like them, fully human in every way, in order that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, and that he might make atonement for the sins of the people.
